The Barcelona Assembly.

The Barcelona Assembly.

One room. Two days. A concentrated leaders' institutional proceeding through which consequential questions are deliberated, shared principles are considered and continuing work is established.

Not a smaller conference. A different kind of room.

Barcelona is deliberately designed around the possibilities of a concentrated gathering: serious participation, institutional deliberation, jurisdictional perspective and a permanent record.

No parallel dilution

Every participant remains part of one shared proceeding.

One cumulative agenda

Each movement carries the work of the previous session forward.

A participating leader

The people in the room are not an audience around the programme. They are the programme.

A founding record

Proceedings, priorities, relationships and working mandates continue after the room closes.

Leaders convene. Institutions deliberate. A shared agenda is carried forward.

The Assembly is centred on one formal leaders' meeting rather than a sequence of disconnected summit tracks.

Cross-border reality

Regulatory fragmentation, AI, governance, disputes and access to independent capability.

The Commons in practice

How six institutions, Delegations, Corridors, Standing and Concierge work together.

The Barcelona Declaration

A concise voluntary statement placed before participating leaders for deliberation and possible adoption.

Resolutions and mandates

A small number of credible priorities and working routes—not a catalogue of artificial commitments.

The format changes. The proceeding remains continuous.

The two days move from arrival and context toward formulation, record and continuation.

The Arrival

Who is in the room, which jurisdictions and questions they bring.

The Institution

What UNBOUNDED is becoming and what the six institutions can make possible together.

The World Outside

The realities reshaping professional work across borders.

The Work of the Room

Jurisdictions, corridors, professional challenges and practical scenarios.

The Founding Record

What the room identified, what will continue and how the next annual cycle begins.

The Assembly must leave more than photographs.

Outputs are published only in the form and status they genuinely earn.

Barcelona Communiqué

A concise factual account of what was considered and what follows.

Barcelona Declaration

A voluntary, non-binding professional instrument, subject to deliberation and final process.

Resolutions & mandates

Defined actions with a responsible body, scope and review point.

Founding Record & Proceedings

The leaders, jurisdictions, questions, disagreements and outcomes preserved with accuracy.

Understand the room first. Enter the formal process only as deeply as relevant.

The procedural architecture supports the human purpose; it does not replace it.

The Assembly

Purpose, leaders, format, intended outcomes and participation.

Agenda & Declaration

Questions, draft principles, proposed resolutions and working mandates.

Record & Signatories

Authentication, signature, institutional confirmation, register and implementation status.

A small number of places may remain under consideration.

Participation is reviewed according to professional relevance, institutional fit and the capacity in which the person or institution enters.

Join the full proceeding

For senior professionals entering through their own professional and jurisdictional capacity.

Enter with authority and context

For firms, universities, chambers, professional bodies and aligned institutions.

Open a defined question

For leaders invited to frame a deliberation, facilitate a table or contribute to the record.

Carry the work forward

For participants joining a post-Barcelona mandate, protocol, report or corridor pathway.

The people in the room are the programme.
